

ROC POSTCARD ISSUED
BY THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA
(an error in printing)

Ai Li-Shan

In 1992, the Post Office in Chengdu City, Sichuan Province issued a new year post card for use by their customers. This issue was for the Year of the Monkey. Under the "Postcard" heading at the top was the Republic of China. I understand that this error was not detected for several days, so a number was sold. However, when advised of the mistake, the unsold cards were removed from sale.

I have never seen a used copy, though they no doubt exist. Just another item to look for!
